

PRINCE GEORGE

39TH ANNUAL

SPEECH ARTS & DRAMA
FESTIVAL

APRIL 28th – MAY 2nd 2022

UNBC

Prince George Speech Arts & Drama Festival 2022

Welcome Students, Families and Friends of Speech Arts!

We are glad you have come!

This festival is a celebration of the power of speech, arts, and drama which have helped us survive these last two difficult pandemic years. When we watched movies, listened to audible books or podcasts, we were enjoying the work of those who have put thoughts into words, words to paper, or fingers to keyboard. The festival is our contribution to encouraging our young people to tell the stories in the library of human experience.

Thank you for your support.

Festival Board:

President Mike McGuire

Vice President Trudy Klassen

Secretary Julia Clemson

Treasurer Aimee Cassie

Director Jana Peters

Thank You

To the many hands, heads and hearts that helped produce this festival.

Special thanks to our venue sponsor UNBC

Special thanks to Canadian Royal Purple Lodge #48 for their generous donation

Adjudicator

Catherine Hansen

Catherine Hansen is a long-time Prince George resident, entertainer and broadcaster. She is currently the Producer of Daybreak North on CBC Radio One. From 2001 to 2019 she worked at the Jim Pattison Broadcast Group in the newsroom.

Catherine's passion is also entertaining - and her participation in speech arts and drama began at the age of 7. She has also been part of a number of local theatre productions - memorably as Fantine in 'Les Mis' and Paulette in 'Legally Blonde'. Recently she has been involved in a number of distanced play readings at Theatre NorthWest including 'Waiting for the Parade', 'The Last Wife' and 'Where You Are'.

Catherine graduated from BCIT in 2000 and is a graduate of the Music Theatre Program at Sheridan College in Oakville, Ontario.

When not working or singing, Catherine enjoys running the trails of her fair city and climbing mountains in the surrounding areas.

We are thankful to live and work on the traditional territory of the Lheidli T'enneh Nation. Lheidli means "where the two rivers flow together" and T'enneh means "the People."

Prince George Speech Arts & Drama Festival 2022

Adjudicator

Melissa Glover

Melissa is a local actor, teacher, and director. In her youth, she participated in numerous speech arts and drama festivals in Prince George and Burns Lake. Melissa then pursued post-secondary training in theatre in Calgary, Alberta. Since 2013, Melissa has run her own acting studio, Shooting Stars Theatre, and directs aspiring thespians in two performance intensives in the summer months at Theatre NorthWest.

Melissa has had the honour of working at Theatre NorthWest, Western Canada Theatre, and The Stratford Shakespeare Festival as an assistant director on various productions. She holds her Grade 10 RCM certificate with first-class honours with distinction. She won the best supporting actress award in the 2018 Central Interior Zone festival for her portrayal of Juror 10 in the production of 12 Angry Jurors. Since August 2021, Melissa is one of three newly hired Artistic Associates at Theatre NorthWest.

Melissa is ecstatic to be back adjudicating and knows she will be inspired by these amazingly talented performers!

We are thankful to live and work on the traditional territory of the Lheidli T'enneh Nation. Lheidli means "where the two rivers flow together" and T'enneh means "the People."

Adjudication

"Fantasy is escapist, and that is its glory. If a soldier is imprisoned by the enemy, don't we consider it his duty to escape? . . . If we value the freedom of mind and soul, if we're partisans of liberty, then it's our plain duty to escape, and to take as many people with us as we can!"
